She was left alone in a room on the third floor yesterday afternoon. Shortly before 6 o'clock the other inmates heard a scream, and when the nurses went to learn the cause, they found Miss Hanson lying on the pavement in the yard immediately below the window of her room. The matron and police have not determined whether she jumped or fell from the window.

From all accounts "Lamb" is a misnomer for Michael. He returned home much under the influence of liquor last night, and beat his wife Lizzle with various articles of furniture and his fists. She ran out of the house and her husband followed her, but Policeman Fannon, who was standing there, promptly arrested him.

Justice Goetting recognized Reynolds as a young man whom he had sent away for six months in January, and he was rather surprised to see him out so soon. When asked who had released him Reynolds said "Warden Hayes."

"No, no," said the Justice, "I mean what magistrate."

Lengue Against Him.

Mads C. Sorensen, of New Utrecht, is hot on the trail of Boss Furgueson and New Utrecht. The New Utrecht Fire Company was defendant in a suit by Sorensen some time ago to recover $15,000 over the son's death.

Sorensen now says all the town authorities, from Boss Furgueson down have prevented his recovering lawsuits in which $39,000 is involved. To announce his troubles Sorensen has put up a bill-board 15 feet square, which he has covered with closely written sheets of foolscap paper, setting forth his grievances, mostly in poetry.

It is alleged that Borensen is armed with two big revolvers, and that Boss Furgueson, several firemen and the editor of a New Utrecht paper fear he will make targets of them.

Him of Grave Offenses.

It pays sometimes to be the object of an anonymous attack. Rev. C. L. Percy, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Matawan, N. J., thinks so, any way. Circulars have been scattered around town lately accusing him of sundry grave of fenses. The deacons of the church got together, discussed the charges made and decided to punish their pastor by increasing his salary. Then Presbyteriana and Episcopalians in the town concluded to take a hand in the matter. They concluded that Rev. Mr. Percy had not been dealt with severely enough, and agreed to make a further increase in his salary and stand the expense themselves.

Rev. Mr. Percy has been pastor of the First Baptist Church for five years, and is very popular with his flook. He has recently taken a father active part in politics, particularly in the election of James A. Bradley to the State Senate. His activity in politics, it is said, has brought him into disfavor with the "politics, particularly in the election of James A. Bradley to the State Senate.
